Venice Resident
Taken By Death
Sidney J. Shipman
Dies Last Night

Sidney J. Shipman, 70, a lifelong resident of Shiawassee County, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, Flint, at 8.30 p. m., Tuesday, of a coronary thrombosis. He had been suffering from heart trouble for several years.

Mr. Shipman was prominent in farming activities. He was a charter member of the Farm Bureau and participated actively in civic and church affairs. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Vernon. Residing in Venice Township most of his life, Mr. Shipman, served on the school board for many years as treasurer. His illness prevented him from actively engaging in farming the last eight years, but he continued to reside on and supervise his farm until this year.

He was born May 7, 1879, the son of Mary and the late Charles W. Shipman. Mrs. Shipman is still living at the old pioneer homestead. Mr. Shipman was graduated from Corunna High school in 1899 and was married to Miss Lulu Youngs in 1902.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Kribs Funeral Home, Corunna, the Rev. VanBuren officiating. Place of burial is undecided.

Besides his wife and mother, Mr. Shipman is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Rann, and a son, Dr. Charles Shipman, both of Flint; two brothers, Seymour of Venice Township, and Clark of Corunna; one sister, Mrs. Celia Trumble of Owosso; and three grandchildren.

The remains will rest at Kribs' funeral home.
