Heart Attack Fatal for Ivan Brands

CORUNNA —Ivan E. Brands, a former mechanical and electrical engineer for the old Michigan Sugar Co. in Owosso, was dead on arrival at Memorial Hospital Wednesday afternoon.

Death of Mr. Brands, 74, of 217 E. State St., Corunna, was attributed to a heart attack.

Services will be held at Kriha Funeral Home at 3 p.m. Saturday and burial will be at Pine Tree Cemetery with Park H. Netting officiating.

He was born in Caledonia Township on Sept. 28, 1888, to George O. and Abbie Brands. He graduated from Corunna High School and Michigan State University.

Elsie W. Webb, to whom he was married in Owosso on Sept. 13, 1913, died in 1953. He married Ida Petri in Corunna on Jan. 14, 1957.

Surviving in addition to his second wife are: two daughters, Mrs. Robert Horton of Owosso and Mrs. Forest Benjamin of Webberville; three sons, Ivan Russell of Columbus, Ohio, Floyd of Owosso, and Howard of Corunna; 14 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Another son, Owen, preceded him in death.

Dr. Erwin Eveleth
Ill Two Years

CORUNNA — Dr. Erwin Eveleth, Jr., age 60, former Corunna resident, died at 2 o'clock this morning in Fraser where he had practiced medicine for the past 30 years. Death was due to complications. Dr. Eveleth had been ill for the past two years.

Funeral plans are incomplete. However, tentative plans call for a church funeral in Fraser with a graveside ceremony at Pine Tree cemetery. The Rev. W. Dean Davis, of the Episcopal Church in Owosso, will officiate at the grave.

Dr. Eveleth was born at the family homestead, 910 North Shiawassee street, on Feb. 9, 1889, the son of Erwin and Jennie Eveleth. He attended school here, graduating from Corunna High school in 1908. He later attended Detroit Medical College and began practicing medicine in Detroit. He moved to Ashley for a few years before settling in Fraser.

He was an ardent sportsman.

He was one of 10 children, two of whom still survive. They are Burr Eveleth, living at the family homestead, and W. S. Eveleth also living on Shiawassee street. Dr. Eveleth is also survived by a wife and several nieces and nephews.
