Donald Hurrell

Deceased 8-19-2011

Helen ...

Donald Ellsworth Hurrell

Of Lakeland, Fla., previously of Corunna and Marquette, died Aug. 19, 2011, at the age of 97. He became ill only 10 days before his death and died very peacefully with his loving family keeping vigil by his side. He died at the Good Shepherd Hospice in Lakeland.

He graduated from Corunna High School and later became a journeyman electrician. He belonged to the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 948. He also owned a farm on Lytle Road in Corunna, so he worked two jobs most of his life. In later years, he worked for the state of Michigan as an electrical inspector and lived in Marquette. He was a very generous man giving his time to teach electrical code to the prisoners at the Marquette Branch Prison. He sponsored a child in South America by sending money to give the child a decent life. He also lovingly helped family members with anything they needed.

He was preceded in death by his parents George Lincoln and Ellen (nee Dennis) and his brother Delos (Doris). Also preceding him in death was his first wife, Dorothy (nee Homik), of 40 years, who died May 10, 1979.

He is survived by his second wife, Helen (nee Jackson), whom he was married to for 28 years. He is survived by his loving daughter Barbara McGinn (Neil), his eldest son Richard (Pamela), Robert (Joann), Donald (Linda) and special former daughter-in-law Lena Hurrell. He is survived by two stepsons and their wives, Jerry Jackson (Carol) and Steve Jackson (Carol). There are numerous nieces and nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren by whom he will be lovingly missed.

Funeral service will be Friday at noon at Smith Family Funeral Home, 302 W. Corunna Ave. in Corunna. Visitation is Friday from 10 a.m. until time of service.
