County Road Commissioner Vic Nickels Dies

By JOHN ANDREWS
Argus-Press Staff Writer

Victor D. Nickels, who was recently re-elected to the Shiawassee Board of County Road Commissioners, died Sunday afternoon of an apparent heart attack while hunting in Burns Township.

As a memorial tribute to Nickels, the Shiawassee County Road Commission will be closed on Wednesday.

Nickels, 50, of Durand, was hunting with his son Don near Beard Road when he reportedly suffered a heart attack around 2 p.m. He was taken to Flint Osteopathic Hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

The Shiawassee County native ran unchallenged on the Democratic ticket in the Nov. 8 election and received 15,994 votes on his way to a second six-year term on the road board. He had also faced no opposition in the August primary election.

During his first term on the board, Nickels served as vice chairman in 1985 and as chairman since 1986.

It will be up to the Shiawassee County Board of Commissioners to appoint an interim replacement until the next general election.

"I'm surprised and very disappointed," said Road Commission Superintendent/Manager Walter Clink.

"He worked hard and he played hard," Clink recalled. "He was very helpful with labor-related matters, and was conscientious about answering complaints from the public. He was very knowledgeable about machinery, he knew a lot of people in the county, and he was well-known."

Nickels was a supervisor with Agersinger and Morse Construction Co. He had 30 years of experience in road construction — 25 years in supervision.

VICTOR D. NICKELS

A 1957 graduate of Corunna High School, he was a 20-year member of the Owosso Eagles Aerie #851, and also belonged to the Owosso Bowling Association, Corunna Lions Club and Corunna Jaycees.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, having attained the rank of Sergeant.

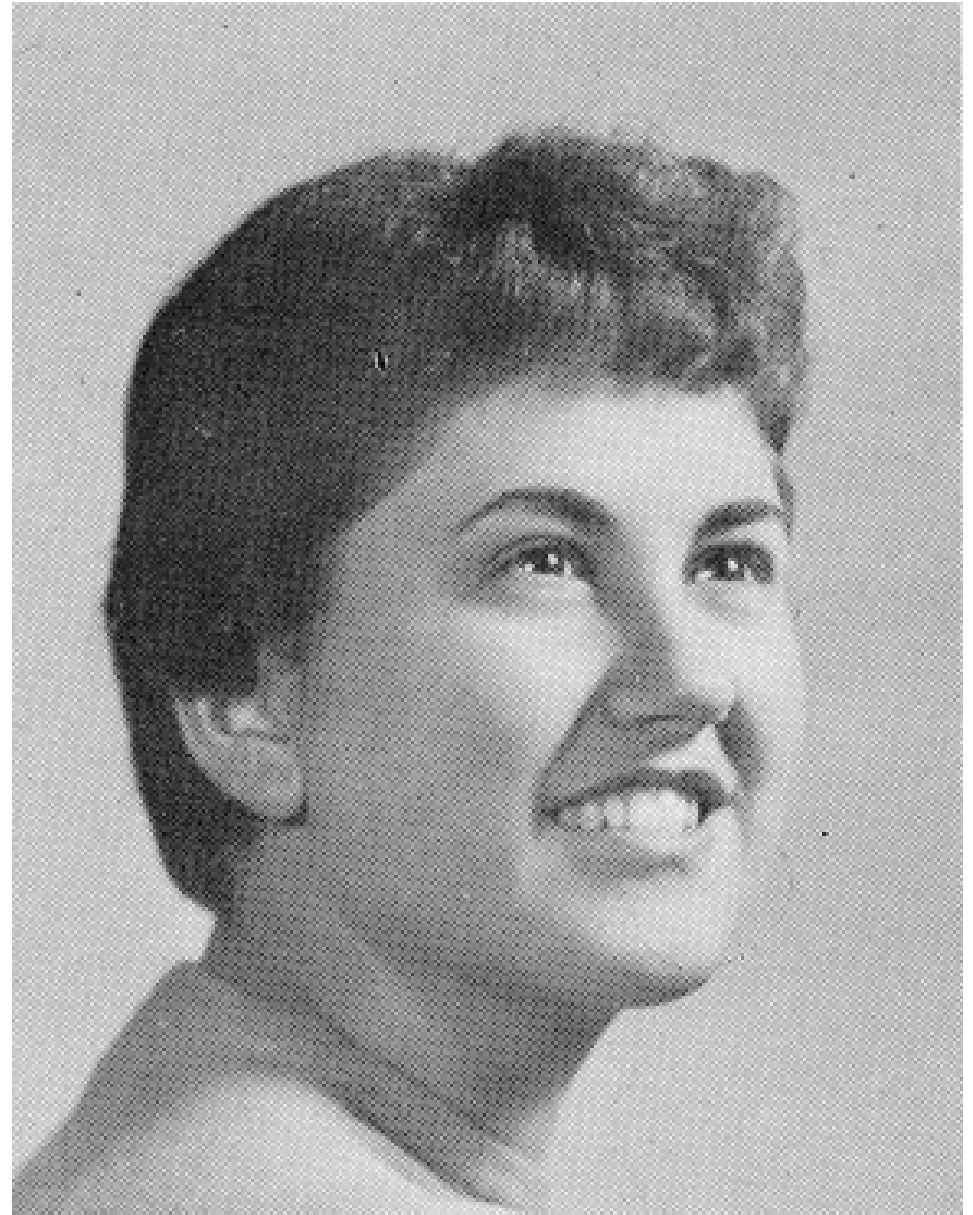

Nickels was born Sept. 13, 1938 in Durand, son of Harry and Rose (Jankowski) Nickels.

He is survived by his wife Nancy (North). They were married on April 4, 1964 in Bancroft and they have three grown children — Don of Durand, Teresa of Boca Raton, Fla., and Kim of Owosso.

The road board is comprised of three elected officials, with staggered six-year terms. The other two elected officials are Warden E. Garber and John H. Conger, both of Owosso.

Funeral details are included in Nickels' obituary on Page 2.

Roger LeRoy Price, 81, of Bancroft, passed away on Friday, April 16, 2021, at Memorial Healthcare. A memorial service to honor and celebrate his life will be announced later this summer by Watkins Brothers Funeral Homes, Bancroft Chapel.

Roger was born in Owosso, Michigan on May 5, 1939, to the late LeRoy and Dorothy (Crownor) Price. He graduated from Corunna High School in the class of 1957, and on December 28, 1957, he married the love of his life, Caroline Elizabeth Nickels, at the Durand Baptist Church. Together they raised four children. Roger spent his early years working in many trades. He served as Shiawassee Township Supervisor, Shiawassee County Drain Commissioner and as City Manager of many Michigan municipalities until retiring from the Village of Stockbridge. Roger loved the outdoors and enjoyed fishing and hunting with his sons and grandson. He also enjoyed woodworking and was especially proud of the lighthouse that he made for Caroline. He maintained a meticulous garden that fed his family and the neighborhood. He loved watching the Spartans. Roger was a proud supporter of agriculture. He was a 4-H Leader, helped with FFA projects, and could commonly be found supporting the youth livestock sales at the Shiawassee County Fair. Roger and Caroline were some of the original investors in the Hibbard Road Fairgrounds, participating in the "Buy an Acre" program. Roger loved children. He was a Boy Scout Leader, Little League Baseball Coach, PTO President and a volunteer for DVA Ambulance. Second to his love for Caroline was his adoration of his grandchildren. He was their biggest cheerleader and rarely missed a game or a performance. Roger's favorite means of transportation were his John Deere tractors, Big John, and Little John.

Roger is survived by his wife of 63 years, Caroline, their children; Rodger Price (Karen Varney), Laurie (Don) Hendershot, Daniel (Michelle) Price, Timothy Price (Kim Keeler). His grandchildren; Holden Price (Sara Lalk), Carly Hendershot, and Addison Price (Nathan Hall), step-grandchild Kim (Jeremy) Hall, step-great grandchildren Austin and Kendall Hall, his brother, Norman (Eleanor) Price, very special aunt, Alice Lewis and many nieces, nephews, cousins and many loving in-laws.

He was predeceased by his parents, and his sister, Bonita.

Hope May Schwank November 15, 1939 - September 16, 2017

Hope May Schwank, 77, of Polson, Montana (formerly Colorado Springs, Colorado) passed away on Saturday, September 16, 2017 at St. Joseph Medical Center in Polson.

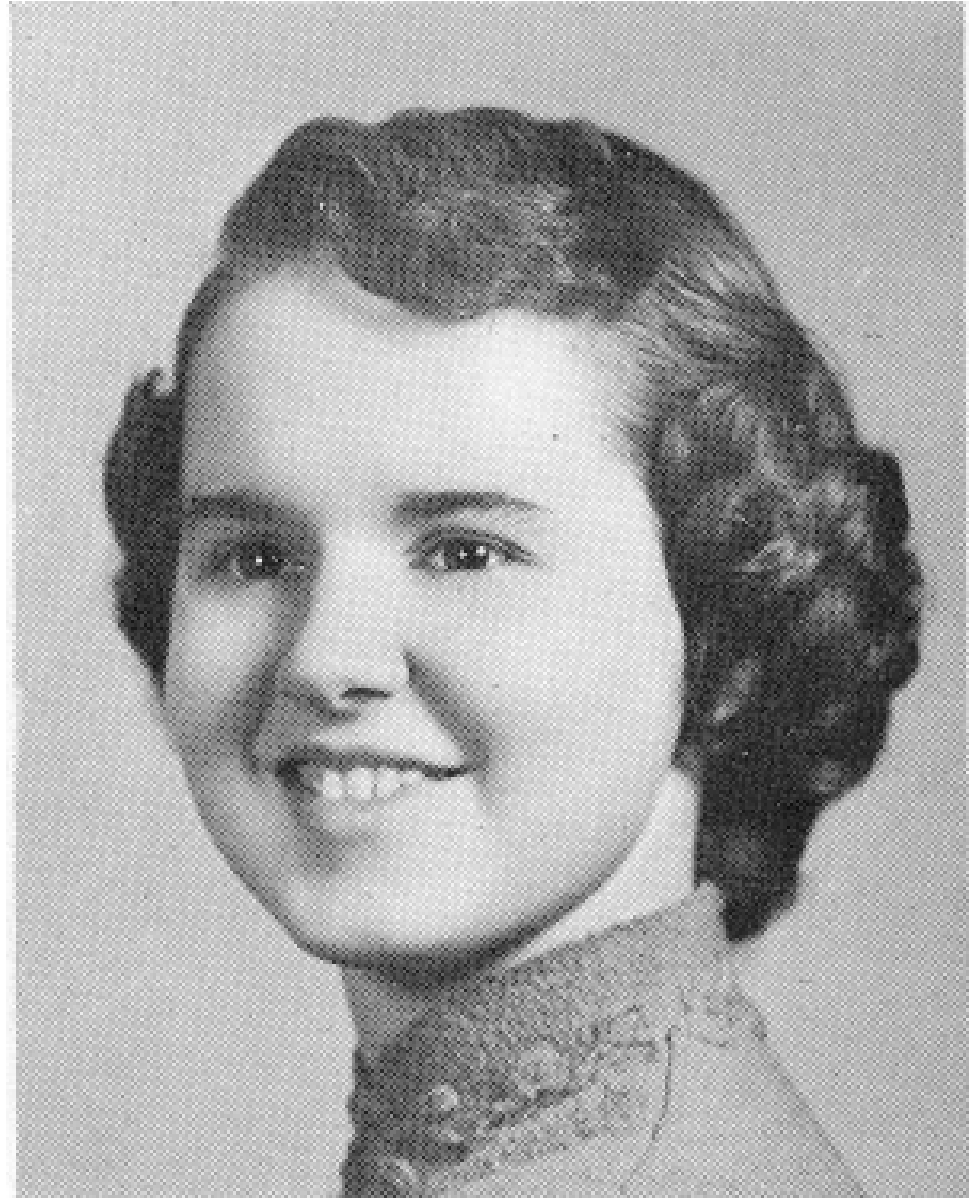

She was born on November 15, 1939 in Mason, Michigan to Gordon and Faith (Taylor) Reavely. As a young girl she was raised with her two brothers, Neal and Keal on a farm in Michigan. Upon graduation from high school, she attended Michigan State University for two years and subsequently met the love of her life, Lieutenant Jock Schwank while he was in pilot training in Big Spring, Texas. After a whirlwind six-week courtship, on November 5, 1961, they married in Okemos, Michigan. Jock and Hope spent 56 years together filled with fun and love.

During those 56 years, they were stationed in Texas, Alaska, Montana, Florida, Oregon and Colorado. As a mother to David and Blake, she led 4-H and taught them and other children how to not only raise rabbits and guinea pigs, but how to care for others. She taught her boys how to be good men and husbands.

A loving wife, she and Jock had many interests. For many years they raised finches and koi, built ponds, Simpich Elf villages and collected and sold Teddy Bears. She was a successful artist, throwing many art shows and painting not only acrylic on canvas, but on many different mediums to include carved leather, slate, driftwood, shirts, shoes and wooden purses!

Survivors include her husband Jock (Polson, Montana), sons and daughters-in-law and three granddaughters: David and Jill Schwank and granddaughter Ashley (Loveland, Colorado) Blake and Christie Schwank and granddaughters Katrina and Jessica (Colorado Springs, Colorado). One brother, Neal Reavely (Oregon City, Oregon). She was preceded in death by her parents Gordon and Faith Reavely and her brother Keal Reavely.

Novotny, Janis Leigh Beloved wife, mother and grandmother, fell asleep in Jesus at her home on Aug. 3, 2011. She was born in Owosso, Mich., on July 3, 1939, to Jack and Jane Ritter. Janis earned her bachelor's in education from Michigan State University and taught first grade in Illinois and Michigan before she and her husband, Russell, started their family. Janis and Russell made their home in Lake Bluff, Ill., for 35 years. Janis was active as the Welcome Wagon representative in Lake Bluff/Lake Forest for 12 years. She also enjoyed a career in fashion and clothing sales. She had a keen eye for interior design and enjoyed decorating her home. Her beautiful smile was always appreciated by the new members of the community. In addition, she helped her husband, Russell, at the Lake Bluff Insurance Agency. Janis and Russell relocated to Napa in 2001 to be near their daughter Sally and her family. Janis became involved at St. John's Lutheran Church, where she served in the Women's Ministry and as a greeter and usher. One of her greatest joys was playing tennis with her friends in the Napa Valley Tennis Association, where she was known as the "sunshine on the courts." She also volunteered at the Sonoma Developmental Center Parents' Association. Janis was affectionately known to her grandchildren as Nanie. She spent countless happy hours with her three grandsons swimming, playing tennis and enjoying card games. She was one of their greatest fans and attended all of the Napa Little League games as well as the boys' basketball and track events. Janis was full of life and brightened the world wherever she went. Her beautiful smile, love, sense of humor, zest for life and vibrant personality will be greatly missed by her family and friends. Her garden was her pride and joy, and she treasured the times when she could pick strawberries with her grandson Charlie or take the boys on walks with her dog Laci. She is survived by her mother, Jane Ritter; her husband of 51 years, Russell Novotny; daughters, Susan Novotny and Sally Vaziri and son-in-law, Dr. Ali Vaziri; grandsons, Cameron, Christopher and Charlie; and her sister, Sally Grigaliunas. The family would like to express their deepest gratitude to Dr. Ari Umutyn, Deanna Shroyer, Michelle Mitchell, Pastor Mike Schmidt, Pastor Mark Heine, Pastor Robert and Julie Roth and Mary Sinclair, Robyn Marsee and all the friends and family who supported us during her brief illness. A service in celebration of her life will be held on Saturday, Aug. 13, at 3 p.m. at St. John's Lutheran Church. Memorial contributions may be made to St. John's Lutheran School, 3521 Linda Vista Ave., Napa, CA 94558. Memories and words of sympathy may be sent to the family online at tulocaycemetery.org.
